Delegation of Authority to University of Missouri President, Transition Assistance Procedure – presented by Vice President Rodriguez

It was recommended by Vice President Rodriguez, endorsed by President Forsee, moved by Curator Fraser and seconded by Curator Walsworth, that the Compensation and Human Resources Committee make the following recommendation to the Board of Curators for approval:

that the Board of Curators authorizes the President of the University of Missouri to implement a transition assistance procedure for Administrative, Service and Support employees who are laid off or terminated as a result of budget or financial constraints. The president has the authority to institute such a procedure for a period of time as he deems necessary.

This procedure allows recognition of length of service through continuation of benefits and financial compensation for finite periods of time based on length of service.

February 5-6, 2009

This procedure shall condition receipt of transition assistance upon the affected employee's willingness to sign a release waiving the right to file an internal grievance or a lawsuit.

The president shall advise the Board of Curators if such a procedure is implemented, the period of time it shall remain in effect and the terms and conditions of such procedure.

travel funds and leave related expenses may be provided as deemed appropriate.

3. Sabbatical Leave. Tenured faculty members are eligible to apply for a sabbatical leave after six or more years of service, and can reapply for subsequent sabbatical leaves six years after the prior sabbatical leave. Sabbatical leaves may be taken for a period of time up to a full year. A faculty member on a sabbatical leave will receive up to one-half their regular annual salary. Additional travel funds and leave related expenses may be provided as deemed appropriate.
- B. Personal Leave - Within the specifications described below, each campus will develop an application and review process to approve personal leaves and stipulate the duration (not to exceed one year) and support associated for each leave.
1. Leave of Absence. Faculty members may apply for a personal leave without pay. A leave of absence may be granted in cases of exceptional personal or institutional reasons, such as medical leave beyond the requirements of the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA). A leave of absence without pay may be granted for a period not to exceed one year and may not extend past the ending date of the faculty member's appointment. Any extension of the one year limit must be approved by the chancellor.
 2. Family and Medical Leave.
 - a. Summary: FMLA is a federal law that requires an employer to provide eligible employees with the right to take a leave of absence for family or medical reasons, and leave for military families while maintaining job protection.
 - b. Eligibility: Any faculty member who has been employed by the University for a total of at least 12 months at the time of the leave of absence, and who has worked at least 1250 hours in the 12-month period preceding the leave is eligible for a family –and medical leave.
 - c. General Leave:
 - (1) The University will provide up to 12 work weeks of leave within any 12-month period for the birth of a faculty member's child(ren); the adoption of a child by a faculty member, or official placement of a child with a faculty member for foster care (leaves for birth or adoption must be taken within 12 months of the event); the care of a son, daughter, spouse or parent (not parent-in-law) having a serious health condition; and the incapacity of a faculty member as a result of a serious health condition. Leave for

February 5-6, 2009

of leave in a single 12-month period to care for the service member. The University requires medical certification from the military that the service member is recovering from a serious period. Any other extension of the probationary period is left to the discretion of the chancellor.

February 5-6, 2009

- E. Definition of Full-time, Ranked, Non-Tenure (NTT) Faculty. For purposes of this policy, there shall be four main types of full-time, ranked NTT faculty. Each should have primary responsibility in a single area: teaching, or research, or clinical practice, or extension activities. The titles should identify the area. Within each area, there shall be three ranks:
1. Research faculty (Research Professor, Associate Research Professor, Assistant Research Professor)
 2. Teaching faculty (Teaching Professor, Associate Teaching Professor, Assistant Teaching Professor)
 3. Clinical/Professional Practice faculty (Clinical Professor, Associate Clinical Professor, Assistant Clinical Professor or Professional Practice Professor, Associate Professional Practice Professor, Assistant Professional Practice Professor)
 4. Extension faculty (Extension Professor, Associate Extension Professor, Assistant Extension Professor)

Delegation of Authority to University of Missouri President, Employee Furloughs, Collected Rules and Regulations 10.030 A.9.

It was recommended by Vice President Rodriguez, endorsed by President Forsee, recommended by the Compensation and Human Resources Committee, moved by Curator Erdman and seconded by Curator Walker, that the following recommendation be approved, as amended by the Compensation and Human Resources Committee on February 5, 2009:

the Board of Curators has authority under the provisions of Section 10.030 A.9. of the Collected Rules and Regulations of the University of Missouri to adjust salaries and benefits, on a prospective basis only, for all employees including, without limitation, those on continuous appointments.

1. The Board of Curators has concluded that a large number of layoffs, nonrenewals or terminations of officers and employees will adversely affect the quantity and quality of the services it provides to its students and to the citizens of the State of Missouri. Further, the Board of Curators has concluded that the current state of the economy and the continuing budgetary and financial constraints on the University may make it necessary and/or the magnitude of layoffs, nonrenewals and terminations of officers and employees.

2. Based upon the foregoing conclusions and in the event the circumstances described above continue, President Forsee is hereby authorized to implement employee furloughs, in accordance with University of Missouri Collected Rules and Regulations 10.030 A.9. Board Bylaws.
3. If implemented, employees will be placed in a temporary non-duty, non-pay status for a specified amount of time. In accordance with University of Missouri Collected Rules and Regulations 10.030 A.9. Board Bylaws, all similarly situated faculty and administrative, service, and support employees will be included across the board on an equitable basis.
4. During any such furlough leave, an employee may continue to participate in all University programs in which he/she is enrolled at the beginning of the furlough period. Coverage will not be interrupted and University contributions will remain the same.
5. The President shall not implement any employee furloughs pursuant to this delegation of authority without prior consultation with and advice to the Board of Curators.
6. This delegation of authority from the Board of Curators to the President of the University of Missouri shall expire on June 30, 2009, the end of the 2008-09 fiscal year.

350.040 Standby, Call-In and Call-Back, UMC

Effective July 15, 1968, the following Standby, Call-In, Call-Back Policy will be

February 5-6, 2009

B. Standby

1. Employees will not normally be scheduled for standby, except for certain UM Health Care positions routinely scheduled for standby, but the University may schedule employees when it determines there is a need for standby. Usually, if this occurs, it will be on occasion of an emergency or for other special reasons. The University will be solely responsible for determining the need for and the number and qualifications of employees required for standby.
2. Hours paid for standby will not be credited toward hours worked in the week for overtime purposes, unless required by law. Certain UM Health Care employees routinely scheduled for standby will be paid a flat rate per hour of call. Those hours will not be credited towards overtime unless required by law.

- A. Overtime Wages Under Fair Labor Standards Act -- Effective February 1, 1968, the provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act requiring time and one-half the regular rates of pay for work in excess of 40 hours in a work week (or 80 hours in a bi-weekly period) apply to the non-exempt employees of the University of Missouri.
- B. Overtime, Compensation
 1. Overtime, Defined -- Overtime is all authorized time worked by a non-exempt employee for the University that is in excess of 40 hours in a work week (or in excess of the FLSA approved standard for police and certain hospital employees).

Paid time off does not apply in calculating overtime.

February 5-6, 2009

2. Rate -- Overtime work will be paid for at the rate of time and one-half of the employee's regular straight time wage rate, plus the cost of University paid meals and shift differentials where applicable.

Paid time off does not apply in calculating overtime.

Revision to Collected Rules and Regulations Section 140.011, Investment Policy for Endowment Fund, and Section 140.012 Investment Policy for Retirement, Disability and Death Benefit Plan, UM

It was recommended by Vice President Krawitz, endorsed by President Forsee, recommended by the Finance and Audit Committee, moved by Curator Russell and seconded by Curator Walker, that the following recommendation be approved:

the University of Missouri Collected Rules and Regulations, Section 140.011 Investment Policy for Endowment Fund, and Section 140.012 Investment Policy for Retirement, Disability and Death Benefit Plan, shall be amended (as on file with the minutes of this meeting) to incorporate passive investment management and modifications to the global fixed income guidelines, and an amendment that a minimum bond quality rating for the global fixed income sector be capped at A-:

- Adopt the Barclays (formerly Lehman) Global Aggregate Bond Index as the University's new global fixed income guideline. This replaces the previous benchmark which consisted of 50% Citigroup World Government Bond Index Hedged and 50% Lehman Brothers Global Aggregate Bond Index.
- Adopt a minimum bond quality rating of A- for the global fixed income sector. This replaces the previous minimum rating of A.
- Delete the language from the guidelines that discussed allocations between U.S. and non-U.S. bonds. The managers have always had full discretion to choose between U.S. and non-U.S. bonds. The deleted language had no impact on the managers' portfolio decisions.

the independent auditor's qualifications and independence, and the University's compliance with legal and regulatory requirements.

- a. The Audit Committee shall be the Board Committee on audit.
- b. The Audit Committee shall meet four times per year to consider business related to its audit function. Sufficient opportunity for the internal and independent auditors to meet with the Committee should be provided. At least annually, the Finance and Audit Committee, as part of its audit function, shall meet solely with the independent auditor and the internal auditor.
- c. The Audit Committee in its audit role may investigate any matter brought to its attention with full access to all records, facilities, and personnel of the University and the authority to engage other individuals as necessary to carry out its duties.
- d. The responsibilities of the Audit Committee in its audit function include, but are not limited to, a review of the internal audit plan, a review of audits completed, a review of annual audited financial statements, and recommending to the full Board of Curators the appointment of the University's independent and internal auditors.
- e. The Audit Committee may establish processes, procedures, and regulations governing their oversight of the internal and external audit process.

C. Compensation and Human Resources Committee - The Compensation and Human Resources Committee may have referred to it matters relating to the compensation, benefits and other human resource functions of the University and associated programs and policies.

1. The Vice President for Human Resources of the University of Missouri or some other person or persons designated by the President of the University shall be an ex officio member of this Committee.
2. The Compensation and Human Resources Committee shall be the Board Committee for executive compensation based on established individual dollar threshold and multi-year contract arrangements; Retirement Disability and Death Benefits Program; medical plan and all other benefit programs of the University; human resource and labor policy; and attendant financial considerations associated with these programs with the exception of the Retirement Trust. The Compensation and Human Resources Committee has broad responsibility for oversight in matters involving personnel and compensation throughout the University. The President shall regularly consult with the committee in the following areas:

- a. Multi-year employment contracts and extensions;
- b. Compensation and salary levels for General Officers, faculty, and staff;
- c. Performance and annual review protocols;
- d. Market and wage comparator groups;
- e. Evaluating benefits, retirement, and post-retirement plans; and
- f. Promulgating employee recruitment, hiring, and termination policies.

D. Finance Committee - The Finance Committee may have referred to it matters relating to the fiscal and accounting functions of the University and associated programs and policies.

1. The Vice President for Finance and Administration of the University or some other person or persons designated by the President of the University shall be an ex officio member of this Committee. The Vice President for Finance and Administration shall be responsible for the agenda and for transmitting Committee recommendations.
2. The Finance Committee shall be the Board Committee on investments.
3. The Finance Committee shall be the Board Committee on physical facilities and management services. The Finance Committee may have referred to it matters relating to the planning, building, maintenance and operation of the physical facilities of the University, and the purchasing of equipment and supplies utilized by the University.
4. The Finance Committee shall be the Board Committee on resources and strategic planning. The Finance Committee of the Board of Curators shall engage in activities and meaningful work with the University of Missouri Administration to: (1) assist the Board of Curators in securing adequate resources for the University of Missouri to respond to its challenges and responsibilities as Missouri's major public research university; and (2) to provide oversight and guidance for the University of Missouri's academic and financial planning, both short-and long-term.

In assisting the Board of Curators and the University of Missouri secure adequate resources, the Finance Committee will monitor and recommend changes, as appropriate, in policies and procedures related to:

February 5-6, 2009

- a. support from the taxpayers of Missouri, as recommended by the Governor and appropriated by the General Assembly;
- b. federal support for the University of Missouri's research and other educational programs and for student financial aid at both the undergraduate and graduate levels; and
- c. The Committee's role in planning includes leadership leading to the annual establishment and assessment of goals and priorities for the University of Missouri system and its campuses and the intermediate-term strategic planning (three to five year time horizon) and longer term environmental forecasting for the University of Missouri system and its campuses, all intended to assist the University of Missouri in establishing current and future needs of the University of Missouri and systems or means to accomplish the future ambitions of the University of Missouri.

E. Governance Committee –

1. The governance committee shall consist of three curators. The board chair and the president of the university shall serve as ex officio members of the committee. Ordinarily, not more than two of the three committee members shall be new in any given year. When possible, the immediate past chair of the board shall serve as chair of the committee.
2. The committee shall have a broad mandate from the board to work with the board chair and the president of the university to help the board function effectively, efficiently and with integrity. Its responsibilities shall minimally include:
 - a. ensuring that a substantive orientation process is in place for all new board members
 - b. overseeing, or determining with the board chair and president, the timing and process of periodic board self-assessment;
 - c. encouraging board members to participate periodically in in-service education opportunities;
 - d. ensuring that the board adheres to its rules of conduct, including conflict-of-interest and disclosure policies, and that it otherwise maintains the highest levels of integrity in everything it does; and
 - e. shall periodically review the adequacy of the board's bylaws and other Collected Rules and Regulations adopted by the Board that pertain to its internal operations. All recommendations for bylaws amendment shall first be considered by this committee.

February 5-6, 2009
