You must provide all vendors and suppliers with an exemption certificate before making tax-exempt purchases.

See Rule 12A-1.038, Florida Administrative Code (F.A.C.).

Your Consumer's Certificate of Exemption is to be used solely by your organization for your organization's purchases.

Each purchase made by an individual on behalf of the organization, even if the individual will be reimbursed, is taxable.

This certificate does not include purchases your organization makes. The sale or lease to others of tangible personal property is taxable. You must collect and remit sales and use tax on such taxable transactions. Note: Churches are exempt from this requirement except when they are the lessor of real property (Rule 12A-1.075, F.A.C.).

It is a criminal offense to fraudulently present this certificate to evade the payment of sales tax. Under no circumstances should this certificate be used for the personal benefit of any individual. Violators will be liable for felony. Any violation will require the revocation of this certificate.
