

CHAPTER 16

Section 16-1. The State shall have the right to regulate the practice of the profession of nursing in this State.

Section 16-2. The State shall have the right to regulate the practice of the profession of nursing in this State.

Section 16-3. Chapter 16, title 44, of the General Laws of 1956, and its supplements, shall be amended to read as follows:

Section 16-3.1. The State shall have the right to regulate the practice of the profession of nursing in this State.

Section 16-3.2. The State shall have the right to regulate the practice of the profession of nursing in this State.

Section 16-3.3. The State shall have the right to regulate the practice of the profession of nursing in this State.

Section 16-3.4. The State shall have the right to regulate the practice of the profession of nursing in this State.

Section 16-3.5. The State shall have the right to regulate the practice of the profession of nursing in this State.

Section 16-3.6. The State shall have the right to regulate the practice of the profession of nursing in this State.

Section 16-3.7. The State shall have the right to regulate the practice of the profession of nursing in this State.

Section 16-3.8. The State shall have the right to regulate the practice of the profession of nursing in this State.

Section 16-3.9. The State shall have the right to regulate the practice of the profession of nursing in this State.

Section 16-3.10. The State shall have the right to regulate the practice of the profession of nursing in this State.

Section 16-3.11. The State shall have the right to regulate the practice of the profession of nursing in this State.

Section 16-3.12. The State shall have the right to regulate the practice of the profession of nursing in this State.

Section 16-3.13. The State shall have the right to regulate the practice of the profession of nursing in this State.

Section 16-3.14. The State shall have the right to regulate the practice of the profession of nursing in this State.

Section 16-3.15. The State shall have the right to regulate the practice of the profession of nursing in this State.